

Pies, Poetry and Plenty of Pie Cookbooks
An Upper Crust Pie Club event
Saturday 30 October 2010

There's been plenty of hype in the culinary world about the four ingredients – well here are ours:

1. Some Old Tarts – aka well known local poets Lizz Murphy, Venie Holmgren, Kathy Kituai, Chris Mansell and Jenni Kemarre Martiniello
2. A stack of tasty tarts – as found at The Daily Pie in Collector
3. A collection of good enough to eat cook books complete with book shop guru Meredith Wright of Daltons Books
4. A relaxed and hospitable venue for an evening away from the cares of the world – time to talk, listen, think and discuss.

The Daily Pie, Daltons Books and Some Old Tarts invite you to join them on Saturday 30 October at The Daily Pie Café in Collector from 6pm to 9pm for a night of eating, coffee slurping, poetry performance and book browsing.

Cookbooks, especially those about pies, and poetry books by the poets present will be available for purchase.

Pie dinners and coffees may be purchased at the beginning of the night. Complimentary dessert tarts will be served during the course of the evening and the tea/coffee urn will be going until the cat's put out.

This is an Upper Crust Pie Club members' event. It is free, but we'd love you to RSVP to brobinson@home.com.au or you can call Barbie on her mobile 0419 492 658 if you'd like to attend.

You are welcome to bring your guests and to encourage your friends to join The Upper Crust by emailing us. We're always happy to put new names on our mailing list. This event is for adults only.

For details about the performing poets please visit The Upper Crust page on the Daily Pie website www.thedailypie.com.au
